Rebuttal To Argument in Favor of Measure B-17

Please vote NO on Measure B-17 to support affordable housing and to avoid potential costly lawsuits.

This measure was created to fight a law that is no longer in existence. The proponents' argument is centered on a program that was repealed 5-0.

No future Council will bring back a program that was repealed by a unanimous vote, and opposed so strongly by so many residents.

The initiative petition got thousands of signatures through misleading language and a desire to remove the Rental Housing Inspection Program. The Council listened to the voices of the people and got rid of the program.

Instead of celebrating an example of democracy working and a win for Fourth and Fifth Amendment rights, the community is met with B-17, a good idea gone very bad.

The problem with B-17 is that no one really knows what the legal interpretation would be. That's what the impartial legal analysis contained in this ballot pamphlet says. That's why so many people who care about affordable housing are completely against it.

B-17 cannot reduce rent increases by dismantling our affordable housing programs.

Even the spokesperson of this ordinance recognized the harms contained in the "non-discrimination" language and tried to fix it after the petitions were turned in, but it was too late. There is no fixing of poorly written, legally unclear language.

Let's preserve San Luis Obispo's ability to help everyday people with affordable housing programs and policies.

We urge you to vote NO on Measure B-17.
